Collection Statement

Workplace Injury Commission (WIC) is the trading name of Accident Compensation Conciliation Service (ACCS), which is a body corporate established under the current workers compensation legislation. WIC collects personal and health information for the purposes of processing applications for conciliation or referrals for arbitration, and other purposes related to the provision of conciliation and arbitration services, including for its administrative purposes and to evaluate its services. WIC may use and disclose personal and health information, and any documents provided to it, to any party, their representative or to any other person a party has nominated to assist them; to courts and tribunals; to any person or organisation authorised by the party or by law to obtain it; and to WIC's third-party contractors. WIC is subject to secrecy provisions under the current workers compensation legislation, and only discloses information in accordance with that legislation. A person may be required to provide information to WIC under workers compensation legislation. If they do not provide it, it may impact the progression of conciliation or arbitration. A person may access their personal and health information by contacting WIC directly (contact details are at the top of this form). For more information about how WIC manages personal and health data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.
